

Donor Privacy Statement

Season of Justice is incredibly grateful for the generous support of our donors; all gifts made directly to our organization are tax-deductible to the fullest extent of the law and will be acknowledged with an official tax receipt.

All donors have the right to remain anonymous and can choose to be acknowledged as such through the check boxes provided throughout our donation platforms or directly through writing to Sydney Pacha, Development Manager, at sydney@seasonofjustice.org.

Season of Justice does not and will never share or sell information provided to our organization in any facet, including but not limited to donations, mailing list sign-ups, social media interaction, etc.